

I AM DiANNA DAVID

Red Ball Movement Promotional Biography

DiANNA DAVID is an award-winning, multi-disciplinary artist who fuses urban hip hop dance with physical comedy, characterization, prop manipulation, and contact juggling to deliver thought-provoking messages that impact self-discovery and social change.

As a gifted motivational entertainer, DiANNA seamlessly blends the comedic innocence of Mr. Bean, the optimistic spirit of Charlie Chaplin, with the magnetic dance appeal of Michael Jackson in all of her one-woman shows. She has toured both nationally and internationally to audiences of over 3000.

DiANNA DAVID was in search for the meaning of life and was stressfully climbing the corporate ladder as a mechanical engineer, yet still experiencing dissatisfaction. Inner-confusion arose when she realized her emotional well-being wasn't aligning with the "successes" she was living.

It wasn't until she quit her job and turned her passions into purpose that she started reinventing her own definitions of success. Thus was born, "The Red Ball Movement", with the mission question, "What's YOUR red ball?", and to realize that all you have ever wanted is right at your fingertips.

Red Ball Movement Introductory Biography

We would like to give a warm welcome to DiANNA DAVID! She's an award-winning artist who fuses the multi-disciplinary arts of dance, movement storytelling, and prop manipulation to evoke dialogue and social change. 13 years ago, DiANNA realized that engineering wasn't her passion, so she shifted gears into the performing arts and created "The Red Ball Movement" – a movement to understand ourselves better and to ask, "What's YOUR red ball", and realize that all you've ever wanted is actually at your fingertips.
